FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

TOTAL RECLAIM EXPANDS RECYCLING OPERATIONS TO SPOKANE, WA

Spokane, WA (September 3, 2021) – Total Reclaim, Inc., a leading provider of recycling services announced today that it is expanding its collection and recycling operations to include Spokane, WA. Headquartered in Kent, WA, Total Reclaim is the Pacific Northwest’s largest provider of recycling solutions for household and commercial appliances, IT assets and consumer electronics, fluorescent lamps and batteries.

With operations beginning on September 7th, the Spokane facility will be Total Reclaim’s fifth location, which include: Kent and Seattle, WA, Portland, OR and Anchorage, AK. “We are excited to bring our commitment to environmental stewardship and customer service to Eastern Washington” said Bobby Farris, CEO of Total Reclaim. “The company has a history of servicing customers in the Spokane area remotely via our facilities in Seattle, so adding a dedicated operation in Spokane will decrease our logistics costs and increase our service offerings to the area”.

Total Reclaim was founded in Seattle in 1991 to help public and private organizations effectively recycle refrigerators and HVAC equipment in accordance with the 1990 Amendments to the Federal Clean Air Act. In 1995, Total Reclaim became the first reclaimer of refrigerants in the Pacific Northwest. In 1997, the company established EcoLights Northwest to collect and recycle fluorescent lamps, and in 1999 the combined companies began recycling computers, monitors and other consumer electronics, quickly growing to become the largest electronics recycler in the region.

Today, Total Reclaim provides recycling services throughout the Pacific Northwest utilizing a dedicated truck fleet along with company owned collection and processing centers. The company continues to stay committed to developing programs and services to help protect the environment through the proper end-of-life management of regulated waste materials.
