FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Jacksonville, January 3, 2017 - - International Baler Corp. (OTC BULLETIN BOARD: IBAL) International Baler Corporation (IBC) named Sean Usoff Director of Sales & Marketing.

As a long-term employee of IBC, many in the industry already know Sean. He originally started in the engineering department in 1989 and helped that department to grow from manual drafting into the age of solid modeling. In 2001, he moved into the sales department where he handled Direct Sales as well as assisting the IBC dealer network. He then briefly served as a Regional Sales Manager, and in 2014, Sean became National Accounts Manager, working closely with Corporate Accounts.

Throughout his more 27 years of experience in the baling industry, Sean has accumulated a vast knowledge and understanding of the equipment, real-world application experience, and brings a dedicated mindset to the management team at IBC.
